OFFICE OF THE CHIEF

WASHINGTON

December 6, 1948

Dear Admiral:

Thank you for your letter of November 30 congratulating me on my promotion to the position of Chief Coordinator of the Treasury Enforcement Agencies, also for your assurance of continued cooperation between your organization and the Treasury units.

I certainly appreciate the fine cooperation your Agency extended the Secret Service during my tenure as Chief, and I know that in my new position we will continue to enjoy the cordial relationship which exists between the CIA and the Treasury enforcement units.

After a little vacation I expect to be back on the job, and will no doubt see you then. In the meantime, thanks again for your congratulations and best wishes for the holiday season.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ James J. Maloney
